English lessons - there will be ten one hour sessions designed and taught by two very experienced teachers with the curriculum developed around the language the students will be exposed to during their time at camp.

Theme Parks - the students will visit Seaworld, Movieworld, and Wet'n'Wild Waterworld and then have the option to visit the one they liked the most again!

Learn to Surf- as well as Body Boarding the students this year will take the next step and be taught to stand up surf by Paramount surf school who are the leaders in teaching surfing on the Gold Coast.

Aquabus Surfers Safaris - The students will ride Australia's first amphibious Aquabus from the centre of Surfers Paradise. Drive up the Esplanade, along the beach, past the Sheraton Hotel, Seaward to the Spit where all the action takes place, as the experienced skipper drives the Aquabus straight into the magnificent Broadwater.

O'Reilly's National Park - One of the jewels of the Gold Coast with its large range of Australian flora and fauna hidden in a pristine rain forest with cascading waterfalls and breath-taking views. The students will spend a day exploring this natural wonderland.

Other activities included - Indoor Rock Climbing, Ten Pin Bowling, Mini Golf

Accommodation at a four and half star resort right on the beach, close to the camp.

Includes all meals, accommodation, activities and attractions (which are fully run or supervised by registered outdoor education school teachers) plus an exceptional English program.
